Marcia,

I haven't got any more information on William and Polly. Most of the family of James moved to Indiana about 1810. Have you tried looking at Col William Crawford? A well know Crawford at that time. I have not found any connetion to my family, unless he was a brother to James' father.

I would like a copy of the marriage record of William and Polly if possible. Who do I contact for that?

Raich Crawford
Missouri.

Marcia

Sorry, can't help with this one. I have not seen anything that puts James as a Surveyor. James and his wife Rebecca did return to KY from IN and sold what land they had.

Hi Marcia

Don't know whether I can specifically help you, except to note that in at least one, if not two, cases the Crawford family married into some of "my" family in Virginia/Garrard County.

In one case, the one without much proof to date, John Palmer married Nancy Crawford in Rockbridge County, Virginia. John was from Buckingham County. I say "without proof" because this John, if indeed the same, appears to have married a Nancy Finnell/Fennell in Garrard County about 1806. (I'd have to look this up, if you think he sounds familiar).

The second, William Brown Guthrie married a Polly Crawford in Mercer County (one county west from Garrard), in 1809. William Brown Guthrie, with his parents and siblings, lived in Garrard (Paint Lick) just before this time. There are also Crawfords in that neighborhood at that time. Polly's father was a James Crawford. Perhaps he (James) was your James' son or uncle.

Because neither of these is my direct ancestor, I haven't looked much at the Crawfords, but it was a curiosity for me.

I am going to Garrard County next month, and on my list of things to do is to copy the marriage bonds for the Crawfords -- at least those around that time frame.

I'll be happy to share the results with you if you think it will help.

Both of these families, by the way, eventually ended up in northern Missouri.

If this seems to fit, let me know and we can collaborate.

Regards,

Pat (in Tucson)

Am trying to identify parents and siblings of James Crawford who married Sally Duggins in Garrard County in 1799. James and Sally migrated to Preble County, Ohio before 1810. He may be related (cousin?) to the James Crawford who married Martha Knight in Madison County in 1793. James and Martha also migrated to Preble County, Ohio.

Note: So far no relationship to the James and Rebecca (Anderson) Crawford family has been found. James and Rebecca migrated to southern Indiana.
