

There are left with more children and nothing to support them with I suppose you have a great plenty Sam told us that he had bought your and Grand Poz interest at Miller's and that he payed you 26 hundred in gold a few days before he left and that he divided the first payments with Thiram so that Thiram had as much land as he had you wished to know whether it was your money or Grand Poz's I was ^{surely could not make} a little surprised I thought Sam asked some but thought the money here belonged to him it makes me think of a remark I heard when I heard of Thiram's death that was Sam would cheat the heirs out of that property Here if it was entrusted to his care I take I think was in Hardin the other day I was asking him if Col Miller had raised the money for Colver he said he had and Sam had been to Canada buying millions 18 or 20 and then was at Mrs Howard's and was soon going to start home He was here in Nov I believe he came some ways out of his way to visit me I thank him for it but ^{he} did not stop but one night he brought yours and Alon's picture yours got very much soiled that is the case but it look like the original if it would only talk I gave Sam mine and Pearl sitting on my lap when he was a babe rather a poor picture the have all kinds of new types mine that was taken six years ago I have but two children Jake is a great boy he thinks himself a man
